

MRC Pontiac Council of Mayors adopts budget for 2024

Litchfield, QC – November 23, 2023

At the regular meeting of the MRC Pontiac Council of Mayors, held on November 22, the Council adopted a balanced budget of $9.8 million for 2024.

With this budget, the MRC has given itself the means to pursue its mission of revitalizing and developing the region's economy, while focusing on its core responsibilities, such as property assessment, public safety and land use planning. Also on the environmental front, the MRC is giving itself the capacity to meet provincial requirements for the recovery of residual materials by introducing recycling and compost collection in interested municipalities.

Highlights of the 2024 budget include:

Total MRC Pontiac expenditures: $9.8 million

Grants and revenues from services: $5.5 million
